Washington & Jefferson Men, Grove City Women Capture 2010-11 PAC All-Sports Trophy Titles

WEXFORD, Pa. – The Washington & Jefferson College men and Grove City College women have captured the 2010-11 Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) All-Sports Trophies. The all-sports trophies are awarded annually to the schools which perform the best across the board in league competition. First-place finishes are worth nine points (eight for men), second place is worth eight points (seven for men) ... last place is worth one point. PAC member Geneva is currently a provisional member of NCAA Division III and is thus ineligible for the PAC All-Sports Trophy.

On the men's side, the Presidents rode a spring PAC title in golf and runner-up finish in track & field as they built on their lead following the winter season. W&J finished with 55.5 points, comfortably ahead of Grove City (48), followed by Westminster (43), Saint Vincent (42.5), Thomas More (40.5), Bethany (39), Thiel (35.5) and Waynesburg (34). Washington & Jefferson has now won or shared the last seven PAC Men's All-Sports Trophy titles.

The women's race saw Grove City use its PAC spring championship in golf to wrest control of the trophy from Westminster, which had won the previous four women's all-sports trophy competitions. The Wolverines finished with 61 points, just ahead of the Titans (59) and followed by Washington & Jefferson (49), Saint Vincent (47), Thomas More (39), Waynesburg (37.5), Bethany (37), Thiel (24.5) and Chatham (24).

Founded in 1955, the Presidents' Athletic Conference continues its mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence. Consisting of 10 select private institutions in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky, the PAC remains a unique organization in this day of high pressure intercollegiate athletics. With academics at the center of each member's philosophy, the PAC is built on the principle that an athletic program is a part of college life, but not an entity in itself. The PAC annually crowns champions in 19 sports (10 men, nine women).
