PAC BASEBALL NOTES

Bethany Bison

Bethany returned from their spring break trip with confidence after sandwiching a six-game winning streak between losses to Mount Aloysius College and Penn State – Behrend ... In between, the team knocked off several regional foes (including Behrend) to look like the squad that earned the 2004 PAC regular season championship ... The six-game winning streak represents the Bison's longest in over four years ... Bethany has scored 62 runs through eight games this season, an average of 7.75 runs per game.

Wash. & Jeff. Presidents

The defending Presidents' Athletic Conference Champion Presidents open their 2005 schedule on Tuesday with a non-conference game at Ross Memorial Park versus John Carroll ... W&J will round out its weekend with a doubleheader versus Lawrence (Wisc.) on Saturday in its first games played at Fort Myers, Fla., for its annual spring trip.

Grove City Wolverines

The GCC baseball season begins March 21 in Fort Myers, Fla. ... Grove City returns seven regulars to its starting lineup in preparation for the 2005 season ... The Wolverines return C A.J. Stedford, 1B Joel Diller, SS Mike Ritter, 3B Jonathan Mycyk and OFs Michael McMillen, Jerry Ott and Greg Hrebinko ... Among Grove City's returning pitchers are Ryan Carr, Erik Arnesen, Mike Gundy and Luke Lester ... Ritter and Gundy were CoSIDA Academic All-District picks in 2004 ... Grove City will play eight games in Fort Myers next week.

Waynesburg Yellow Jackets

The Yellow Jackets split an eight-game set in Cocoa Beach, Fla., during their annual spring break trip ... Waynesburg won the opening game over Ursinus, 4-1, before losing to Wilkes and Washington College ... The Jackets rebounded with a 15-2 victory over Case Western, which followed the 10 runs scored in the loss to Washington ... After two low-scoring games, both Waynesburg losses, the Yellow Jackets pounded Old Westbury for a 21-8 route ... Junior 2B Brian Gerginski finished the game with seven RBI behind a three-run home run and a grand slam ... Freshman Ryan Group and sophomore Justin Marsinko each added a solo home run ... Waynesburg finished the trip with a 7-0 defeat of Medaille, who beat the Jackets earlier in the week.

Thiel Tomcats

The Tomcats opened their 2005 season by going 4-4 at the Gene Cusic Classic in Florida last week, picking up wins against New Jersey City (13-7), Albion (10-3), Olivet (9-7) and WPI (16-14) ... In their opening victory over New Jersey City, senior SP Keith Jackson went 6.0 innings, allowing one unearned run on four hits with four strikeouts ... In their rain shortened win over Albion, junior SP Joe Link pitched 5.0 innings, allowing three runs (three earned) on seven hits with five strikeouts ... Sophomore SS Ben Cobler finished with three RBIs while senior 2B Jon Spencer and junior LF Mark Nightingale each added two in the win over Olivet ... Junior 3B Ryan Betzer had a grand slam in the WPI win.

Westminster Titans

Westminster saw its scheduled season opener against Mount Aloysius on March 12 postponed to April 27 due to the weather ... The Titan doubleheader scheduled for Thursday (March 17) against Pitt-Greensburg has been postponed to May 6 ... The WC diamondmen will now open the season Saturday (March 19) against Principia to open the team's Spring Break trip to Fort Pierce, Fla.
