Geneva Golden Tornadoes (13-6)

Geneva came very close to enjoying a special week, but ended up dropping a couple one-run games to 29th ranked Thomas More ... The Golden Tornadoes started the week with a split at W&J ... After dropping a 12-6 decision in game one, Geneva rallied for a pair of seventh inning runs in the night cap ... Jon Jurinko's two-run single in the top of the seventh was the game winner ... Derek Sumner pitched a six-hitter to register his fourth victory of the season ... Geneva started its three-game series with Thomas More with an impressive 10-6 victory, however a hard-luck 2-1 loss in game two evened the series ... Saint Vincent Bearcats (1-19)

The Bearcat struggles continued, as SVC dropped all five games on the week ... In Wednesday's doubleheader sweep at Grove City, Kenny Primeaux totaled four hits, but the Bearcats stranded 10 men on base over the two contests and committed five errors ... The Bearcats then took part in a three-game weekend set at Newport News Apprentice School in Hampton, Va. ... In the opener on Saturday, a 3-1 defeat, freshman Jeremy Mains worked his third complete game of the season, but was saddled with the loss despite scattering just seven hits ... In the nightcap, SVC managed just three hits, while the Bearcats committed four errors in a 6-1 loss ... In the series finale Sunday, Primeaux homered and doubled, while Mike Adams went 3-4 at the dish, but SVC came up on the wrong end in a 12-10 slugfest.

Thiel Tomcats (14-5, 6-1 PAC)

Junior C Mark Thomchick went 4-for-4 in W&J's loss against the Pioneers and cracked his second home run of the season ... The Red & Black closed out the week with a doubleheader sweep of PAC rival Bethany ... The Presidents survived a late inning rally by the Bison to claim game one 8-7 and used a six-run fourth inning to defeat BC 11-5 in game two ... W&J and Bethany were scheduled to play the final game of its three game set Sunday, but the game was postponed and will be made up Monday (3/30) at 4 p.m. at Bethany Park.

Waynesburg Yellow Jackets (8-10, 3-4 PAC)

The Yellow Jackets came a run away from a 4-0 week as they swept a two-game set from Westminster on Tuesday, March 24, and followed that with a two-game road split at Grove City ... The three wins were the first in Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) play for Waynesburg this season ... Most of the games were hard-fought contests, as three of them were decided by a single run ... The Jackets went 2-1 in those contests and added a 12-6 triumph over Westminster to start the week ... Junior 2B Wes White Jr. batted .500 (5-for-10) with eight runs scored and four RBIs, while adding a double and five stolen bases in five attempts. ...
