Wash. & Jeff. Presidents

Washington & Jefferson defeated Grove City for its only win in five tries last week ... The Presidents received a strong pitching performance from sophomore Joel Yungen, who hurled a complete-game six hitter, allowing just two earned runs ... The win was Yungen's first career collegiate victory ... Junior rightfielder Brent Rockwell led the W&J hitter with a 2-for-2 effort, including two RBI ... Freshmen Frank Pilato and Jason Cramer each blasted home runs in W&J's 5-4 loss at Westminster in the first game of the doubleheader ... The Presidents wrap up their season on Thursday at Muskingum at 1:00 pm.

Grove City Wolverines

After a 1-10 start, the Wolverines have won 9 of their last 11 games ... Grove City successfully defended its PAC crown by winning all three of its games by a combined 23-3 ... Wolverine starters freshman Mike Gundy, sophomore Matt Kearney, and sophomore Greg Grupp held opponents to one earned run over the weekend ... The 21-win season marked the first time the team had recorded 20 or more wins under fourth-year head coach Duane Lanzy.

Thiel Tomcats

The Tomcats entered last weekend's PAC Championship Tournament as the host and number one seed, but fell just short of the conference championship by losing to Grove City 9-0 in the championship game Saturday at Packard Park ...
