PAC GOLF NOTES

Bethany Bison

Bethany was slated to open the 2011 spring schedule last Monday at the Westminster Invitational, but cold weather forced the event to be cancelled ... The Bison will now tee it up for the first time this spring on Monday, April 11 at the Pitt-Greensburg Invitational.

Grove City Wolverines

The Grove City College golf teams opened the 2011 spring season Friday and Saturday by competing in Capital University's Purple and White Invitational at Foxfire Golf Course in Lockbourne, Ohio ... The men took 10th out of 16 teams and the women placed ninth in a 12-team field ... On the men's side, junior Kyle Wilson – playing on Grove City's 13th-place "B" team – posted the team's low score of the weekend by carding a 167, good for 28th ... Ian Finney (171) took 38th ... Senior Lindsay Crawford led the women's team with a two-day score of 189, good for 35th place overall ... The women's team will compete in the Westminster College Eckles Invitational Monday before hosting their own invitational at Grove City Country Club Thursday ... The men's team will play in the Heidelberg Invitational Friday and Saturday.

Saint Vincent Bearcats

Both Bearcat golf teams hope that Mother Nature will finally allow them to kick off the spring schedule this week, as the men are slated to take part in the two-day Carnegie Mellon Invitational over the weekend, while the Lady Bearcats open this Thursday at Grove City.

Thiel Tomcats

The Thiel golf teams have yet to compete ... The women's team will compete at the Westminster Invitational on Monday while the men's team will make its debut Saturday at the Edward Jones Invitational hosted by Carnegie Mellon.
