Also nominated was sophomore Lynne Szarnicki of Washington & Jefferson.

PAC GOLF NOTES

Bethany Bison

The Bison men took eighth place out of nine teams at the Spiedel Invitational Thursday afternoon ... Senior Nevada Smith was the team's top scorer with an 88 ... The only women to take the course for Bethany was junior Jen Spencer, who shot a 67.

Wash. & Jeff. Presidents

Both the W&J men's and women's teams opened their 2002 seasons last Monday as the W&J women captured the championship at the Grove City Invitational and the men's squad finished ninth at the Westminster Invitational ... Senior Nicki Helfer placed second in the women's individual competition with a nine-hole score of 47 ... Sophomore Lynne Szarnicki finished third with a round of 49 ... On the men's side, freshman Bob Waters posted the team's top score with a round of 85 ... Szarnicki led the women's squad at Bethany by carding a 44 ... Junior Mark Hazen finished with an 84 at Bethany for the Presidents' top score.

Grove City Wolverines

Senior Nate Miklos shot an 83 to tie for seventh overall as Grove City tied for fifth out of nine schools at the Bethany Invitational, held Thursday at Oglebay's challenging Speidel Golf Course ... Junior Dan Sumner fired a team-best 81 at the New Castle Country Club on Monday as Grove City opened its 2002 men's golf slate with a fifth-place finish at the twelve-school Westminster Invitational ... Freshman Mary Brown carded the low score in the Lady Wolverines' first three events last week ... Brown placed 10th overall in the 48-player field at the Capital University Invitational, held at Foxfire Golf Club in Lockborne, OH as GCC placed seventh out of nine schools in the final team standings.

Waynesburg Yellow Jackets
