PAC SOFTBALL NOTES

Bethany Bison

The East Coast Collegiate Fast-Pitch Classic was a tournament of ups and downs for the Bison, a knock against the Bethany squad early in the season ... The Bison started the tournament won all three of the game impressively, knocking off their three victims by a combined score of 25-1 ... However, the team also fell hard, falling by a combined score of 17-4...Offensively, seniors Heather Bainey and Jacki White commanded kudos for their tournament performances ... Baine scored seven runs and brought home another five with plate performances that included two home runs and two doubles ... White, a senior first-baseman, notched six hits – including two doubles and solo homer – while hitting .375 with two runs batted in for Bethany.

Wash. & Jeff. Presidents

Washington & Jefferson opened its 2005 schedule on Wednesday by splitting a doubleheader with Juniata, falling 4-3 in game one before taking the nightcap 4-1 ... The Presidents opened play at the Rebel Spring Games in Orlando with an 8-0 win over Macalester and a 5-2 loss to Wisc.-Stevens Point ... Freshman C Hannah Schulz ripped a three-run double to account for all of the runs in the first Juniata game ... Sophomore P Caryn Becker limited Juniata to four hits and she struck out four in game two ... Sophomore P Courtney Grubich hurled a one-hitter while striking out four in the Macalester shutout win ... Schulz led the lineup with four hits and two RBI ... Becker took the loss vs. Stevens Point despite giving up only three hits.

Grove City Wolverines

The Wolverines open 2005 with eight games at the Rebel Spring Games in Orlando, Fla. ... In Grove City's last trip to Orlando, in 2003, Grove City went 2-2 ... The Wolverines are scheduled to host Penn State Behrend March 31 in their northern opener.

Waynesburg Yellow Jackets

Waynesburg was off last week ... The jackets hosts NAIA member Point Park for a doubleheader Tuesday.

Thiel Tomcats

The Tomcats return to action this week with a pair of scheduled contests ... They will play host to Penn State Behrend Monday before traveling to Seton Hill on Wednesday.

Westminster Titans

Westminster split four games to open the w2005 season at the Rebel Spring Games in Orlando ... Sophomore P Jennifer Pancake earned both wins, including her second career no-hitter in the season-opening 1-0 win over Eastern Connecticut State ... A walk with two outs in the sixth was all that separated Pancake from her first career perfect game ... Senior OF Katie Porter drove in junior 3B Karisa Nilsen with an RBI single for the game's only run ... Senior OF Lauren Boris was 3-for-4 at the plate in a 2-0 loss to Otterbein ... Pancake threw a three-hitter with five strikeouts in a 2-1 come-from-behind win over Wisc.-River Falls ... Nilsen's RBI double tied the game 1-1 in the sixth, then an RBI single by Boris plated freshman Maria Joseph for the game-winner in the seventh.
