Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) Announces 2010 Fall Team Sportsmanship Awards

WEXFORD, Pa. – The Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) has announced the 2010 Fall PAC Team Sportsmanship Award winners.

The PAC Team Sportsmanship Award was started in the 2008-09 sports season, and is an effort to recognize and encourage positive sportsmanship among conference teams. The award is sponsored by the PAC Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC), a committee comprised of student-athletes from each member institution that assemble to provide insight on the student-athlete experience.

This is the third year the team sportsmanship awards will be given out in each of the 19 PAC sponsored varsity sports. Each PAC team was asked to vote for the conference team in its sport which displayed the highest level of sportsmanship. The awards are handed out at the conclusion of the fall, winter and spring seasons.

2010 Fall PAC Team Sportsmanship Award winners are:

Men's Cross Country – Geneva College
Women's Cross Country – Waynesburg University
Football – Thomas More College
Men's Soccer - Grove City College
Women's Soccer - Grove City College
Volleyball – Grove City College
Women's Tennis – Saint Vincent College

Grove City College has earned 14 awards to date, while Waynesburg University has six and Thomas More College has earned five. Bethany College, Geneva College, and Saint Vincent College each have four. Thiel College and Westminster College both have three and Chatham University has earned two awards.

Founded in 1955, the Presidents' Athletic Conference continues its mission of promoting inter-collegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence. Consisting of 10 select private institutions in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and Kentucky, the PAC remains a unique organization in this day of high pressure intercollegiate athletics. With academics at the center of each member's philosophy, the PAC is built on the principle that an athletic program is a part of college life, but not an entity in itself. The PAC annually crowns champions in 19 sports (10 men, nine women).
