PAC VOLLEYBALL NOTES

Bethany Bison

Bethany captured third place at the PAC Tournament for the third time in the last three years on Saturday ... The Bison also clinched a winning record for the first time in Jan Forsty's eight years at the helm of the program ... A victory over LaRoche on Wednesday will give Bethany 15 wins, matching the 1998 total for the most wins in a single season during Forsty's reign.

Wash. & Jeff. Presidents

W&J finished its season with a pair of losses last week, including a 3-1 loss to Thiel in the first round of the PAC Tournament ... Junior Andrea Motta posted 11 assists eight digs and one service ace in Tuesday's loss vs. Westminster, while junior Jessica Dott notched a team-high six kills ... Dott and freshman Judi Rose each posted eight kills in the loss to Thiel ... Dott earned First Team All-PAC honors this season, while Motta was named to the second team ... Freshman Jerica Lamens was awarded with the PAC Freshman of the Year award.

Grove City Wolverines

Waynesburg Yellow Jackets

Thiel Tomcats

The Lady Cats upset Washington & Jefferson 3-1 in the opening round of the PAC tournament on Friday, before dropping Saturday contests to Grove City (3-0) and Bethany (3-0).

Westminster Titans

The Westminster volleyball team ran its record to 25-8 and ran its win streak to 10 matches to close the regular season this week, with three-set sweeps of Washington & Jefferson and Geneva followed by a 3-0 mark and team title at the Hiram Invitational in Hiram, Ohio ... Senior outside hitter Meredith Etcher was named Tournament MVP at Hiram, while classmate Shannon Simmons was tabbed to the All-Tournament team ... The Westminster volleyball team finished with a perfect 10-0 record against PAC teams for the second consecutive year.
