PAC WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

RYAN WILES

Washington & Jefferson College

Senior - 197 pounds

Lower Burrell, Pa./Burrell H.S.

Wiles captured the 197-pound title this weekend at the Washington & Lee Invitational, posting his second straight W&L invitational title and the third of his collegiate career. He opened the tournament with a 7-3 win over Niels Madsen of VMI before pinning Dave Rohan of Scranton in the semifinals in 2:10. In the championship match, he recorded a 15-5 major decision over Trevor Needham of Scranton.

PAC WRESTLING NOTES

Thiel Tomcats

The Tomcats went 2-2 at last weekend's Budd Whitehill Duals, hosted by Lycoming College ... Thiel split during the opening day, losing to The College of New Jersey, currently ranked sixth in the nation, 30-9 to start the day, but finished with a come-from-behind 16-15 win over Rhode Island College ... On Saturday the Tomcats fell to ninth-ranked York College 35-12, but once again battled back to pick up a 25-12 victory over 17th-ranked Johnson & Wales University in the consolation round ... Thiel picked up five wins against Rhode Island, but none was more important than Kyle Brown's win at 285 ... His 10-3 decision over Andrew Algarin erased a 15-13 lead for Rhode Island to give the Tomcats the 16-15 victory ... Johnson & Wales used three-straight major decisions to take a 12-0 lead after the first three bouts ... Starting with junior Mike Kemble's 0:45 pin of Robert Doherty at 149, the Tomcats rattled off seven straight victories in posting the 25-12 win ... Brown finished 4-0 on the weekend with a 5-2 decision over Chris Bell ... Junior 165-pound Corey Murphy finished 3-0 on the weekend and defeated fourth-ranked Steve Martell of JWU 2-1 in the 165-pound bout.

Wash. & Jeff. Presidents

Senior Ryan Wiles captured the 197-pound championship to help W&J place fourth out of 12 teams at the Washington & Lee Wrestling Invitational Saturday ... Wiles opened the tournament with a 7-3 victory over VMI's Niels Madsen and then pinned Scranton's Dave Rohan in the semifinals in a time of 2:10 ... Wiles earned his second-straight individual championship at the Invitational and the third of his career after posting a 15-5 major decision against Trevor Needham of Scranton ... Freshman heavyweight Mitch Tenney placed second in his first collegiate action, while sophomores 133-pounder Jacob Habel and 149-pounder Pete Elers both placed third in their respective brackets ... Tenney earned a 4-2 decision in the opening round and then added a fall in 2:38 ... Habel defeated Scranton's Ryan McDaniel, 4-2, in the opening round before falling to Cumberland's Xavier Gomez in the semifinals by a 12-5 margin ... Habel bounced back to place third after again knocking off McDaniel following a 13-5 major decision ... Elers picked up a 46-second fall versus VMI's Robert Taylor in the quarterfinals, but lost to W&L's Peter Lawrence, 6-2, in the semifinals. Elers then recorded a technical fall (5:00) versus Washington & Lee's Eric Gagne in the third-place match ... Junior heavyweight Phil McCormick posted a 1-2 record in the tournament as he picked up his victory in the consolation quarterfinals, defeating Southern Virginia's Joshua Bake, 6-1 ... W&J returns to the mats Wednesday as it travels to Pittsburgh to compete against D-I Duquesne at the Palumbo Center.

Waynesburg Yellow Jackets

Waynesburg lost its lone match of the weekend in Cincinnati to host College of Mount St. Joseph, 30-3 ... Senior Ken Laird posted the lone Yellow Jacket victory during the match with a 9-2 decision ... Laird now is just one victory shy of 100 for his career and is within reach of the program record for career wins (108), which is held by Mark Jenkins, who was a four-time All-American ... Laird also leads the team this season with a 20-9 overall record.
