PAC WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

DAMIAN ROSE

Thiel College

Sophomore - 141 pounds

Freedom, Pa.

Freedom H.S.

Rose captured the individual title at 141 pounds Saturday at the Ursinus Fall Brawl. He posted an 11-6 decision over sixth-ranked Bill Hall of Muhlenberg in the championship semifinals, before recording a 5-3 decision versus John Varnett of the College of New Jersey in the championship final.

Also nominated was sophomore 174-pounder Eric Monday of Washington & Jefferson, and senior heavyweight L.R. Neubauer of Waynesburg.

PAC WRESTLING NOTES

Thiel Tomcats

Thiel finished with six top-five finishers at the Ursinus Fall Brawl on Sunday ... Sophomore Damian Rose claimed the individual title at 141 pounds and went 4-0 on the day, posting an 11-6 decision over sixth-ranked Billy Hall of Muhlenberg College in the championship semifinals ... He recorded a 5-3 decision against John Barnett of the College of New Jersey in the championship final ... Junior 184-pound Andrew Riddle finished second and went 2-1 on the day ... He lost to Muhlenberg's Matt Horn 12-5 in the championship finals ... Sophomore 133-pound Jeff Langdon chose perhaps the longest road to a third-place finish, dropping an 8-3 decision to Steve Kingwood of Ursinus in his opening match before recording five straight wins that culminated with his 12-7 decision over Andrew Lewis in the consolation finals ... Freshman Robbie Miller wrestled to a third-place finish, losing to Kyle Kinchin of the College of New Jersey 9-6 in double overtime in the championship semifinals ... Sophomore 285-pound Mike Edwards finished fourth, losing to seventh-ranked Steve Carbone of the College of New Jersey 3-1 in the consolation semifinals ... In his opening match, Edwards recorded an 8-1 decision against Joe Tartar of Muhlenberg, a 2007 Division III national qualifier ... Junior 165-pound Bryan Pleskovich also earned a fourth-place finish with a 3-2 record ... Earlier in the week, Thiel opened its home and dual schedule with a 29-12 decision against NCAA Division II Seton Hill.

Wash. & Jeff. Presidents

Washington & Jefferson placed 16th of 18 teams at Springfield College's Doug Parker Invitational on Saturday in Massachusetts ... The Presidents had one wrestler, sophomore Eric Monday, place in the top six ... Monday competed in the 174-pound bracket and posted a 4-2 record to claim fourth place ... He defeated Bridgewater State's Phil Mastro by fall (5:22) in the opening round and then earned three victories in the consolation bracket before losing by forfeit in the fifth-place match ... Freshman 125-pounder Brandon Samson also earned a first-round victory by fall in 57 seconds over Rhode Island's Ryan Hardy, while senior 184-pounder Chris Price and sophomore heavyweight Josh Brewer both collected two wins in the winner's bracket before falling in the consolations.

Waynesburg Yellow Jackets

The Yellow Jackets struggled at the Messiah Duals this weekend, losing to the host Falcons (45-6), Lycoming (48-3) and Elizabethtown (52-0) ... Against Messiah, senior heavyweight L.R. Neubauer was the only Waynesburg wrestler to win a match ... Neubauer pinned Mike Kincaid at the 1:20 mark ... The match was the only one Neubauer wrestled at the tri-match ... In the match against Lycoming, sophomore heavyweight Melvin Warrick claimed a 9-2 victory over Alex Bause ... Like Neubauer, the match was the only of the day for Warick.
