2010 PAC Coach of the Year: Ron Headlee, Waynesburg University

2010 PAC Outstanding Wrestler: Alex Crown, 125 lbs., Waynesburg University

CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

The Waynesburg Yellow Jackets captured their first-ever PAC wrestling title by edging perennial PAC power Thiel in the 2010 PAC Championship, hosted by the Tomcats at the Rissell-Beegly Gym in Greenville. The championship came down to the final match at 285 with Waynesburg holding a half-point lead. Yellow Jacket senior Melvin Warrick (Mill Run, PA/Connellsville H.S.) then clinched the victory with a 6-2 victory. With the victory, the Yellow Jackets snapped Thiel's 10-year hold (2000-09) on the conference title and earned the first conference crown for Waynesburg in any sport in five years. Following the meet, Waynesburg swept both major individual awards, as freshman 125-pounder Alex Crown (Carlisle, PA/Carlisle H.S.) was voted PAC Most Outstanding Wrestler, while second-year Yellow Jacket mentor Ron Headlee garnered PAC Coach of the Year laurels.

Founded in 1955, the Presidents' Athletic Conference continues its mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence. Consisting of 10 select private institutions in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Kentucky, the PAC remains a unique organization in this day of high pressure intercollegiate athletics. With academics at the center of each member's philosophy, the PAC is built on the principle that an athletic program is a part of college life, but not an entity in itself. The PAC annually crowns champions in 19 sports (10 men, nine women).
