The Tomcat women's soccer team dropped their final two matches of the 2005 season, falling to Grove City 3-0 on Tuesday and to Thomas More 2-0 on Thursday ... Thomas More Saints

With back-to-back shutouts over Thiel and Bluffton, the Saints broke the school record for most shutouts in a season with 12 ... They had their school record streak of consecutive shutouts in a season broken at eight, and TMC's 10-match unbeaten streak was also snapped with Tuesday's loss to the Titans ... Sophomore Emily Hagedorn recorded her second hat trick of the season, scoring three goals in the game's 18 minutes against Bluffton ... She added both goals in the Saints' 2-0 win at Thiel. Washington & Jefferson Presidents

W&J increased its late win streak to four matches after victories over Waynesburg and Grove City this week ... The second-place finish in the PAC regular-season standings is the best in the program's history ... A win over TMC on Tuesday would equal the Presidents' school-record win totals of the past two seasons ... Senior F Jen Pergola scored both goals on Tuesday on Senior Night vs. Waynesburg ... Pergola scored 61 seconds into the match and then netted the game winner with 10 minutes remaining ... Senior MF Rachel Campbell opened the scoring in the 11th minute at Grove City Saturday and Pergola put the game away with a goal in the 75th minute off an assist from classmate Toni Lynn Simonini ... Assisting on the goal was freshman Amanda Picciafoco ... W&J reclaimed the lead four minutes later when Jen Pergola scored her second goal of the contest ... In the final game, Waynesburg suffered a 4-1 defeat to Bethany ... The Jackets took an early 1-0 lead in the opening 10 minutes off a goal by D Amanda Serjak, her first points of the season ... The Bison, however, tied the game in the 13th minute before adding three more unanswered goals ... Junior GK Emily Byers posted a season-best 10 saves in her lone start of the season.

Freshman MF Abby Montgomery and sophomore MF Kaitlyn Hardman both found the back of the net against Bethany, with junior F Christa Andamasaris posting her team-high 11th assist of the year on the Hardman goal ...
